Dear sir

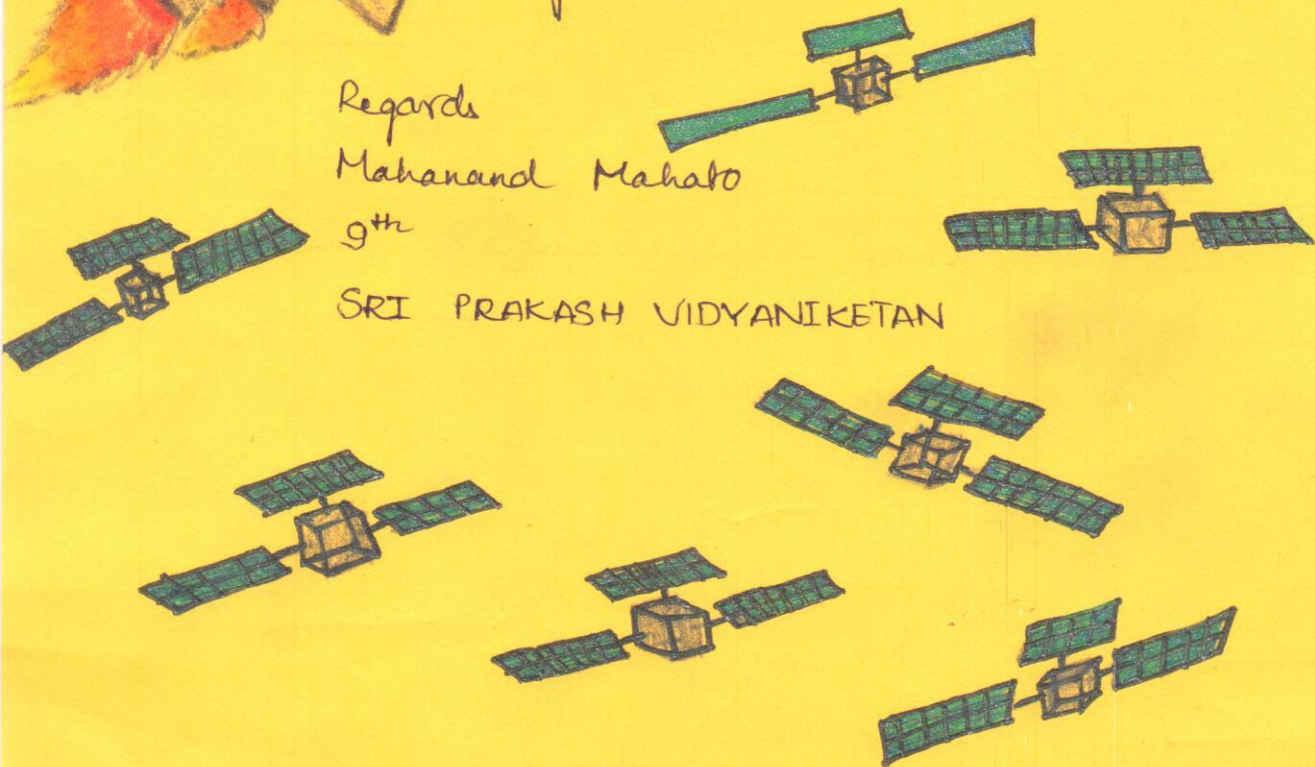

Congratulations ISRO! It is indeed great to know that ISRO is now in its mission success stage and giving a helping hand to the foreign nations to launch their satellites. It is our pleasure to hear that two of the three Indian satellites - Sathyanarasat and Swayam were developed by students from universities. I salute you and your team for encouraging students. We thank you for your commitment towards the work. You are our mentor sir. I wish you all the best for your forthcoming mission.
